

NAVIGABLE WATER WAYS OWNED BY
THE STATE OF MONTANA AND ADMINISTERED BY
THE DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES AND CONSERVATION
TRUST LAND MANAGEMENT DIVISION

Updated 4/2/2003

The State of Montana holds ownership of the land and minerals located below navigable rivers, streams and lakes and related acreage as established in the Equal Footing Doctrine and Montana statutes. The Montana Department of Natural Resources and Conservation, Trust Land Management Division administers these lands on behalf of the state.

The Department's authority to administer the ownership of navigable water bodies are referenced in the following:

1. Equal Footing Doctrine (1844)

Based on a U.S. Supreme Court decision (Pollard vs. Hagen 44 U.S. 212) the original 13 states held ownership of navigable riverbeds consistent with English Law. The Supreme Court held that all new states enter the union under equal footing. Therefore, all of the state's would own the lands beneath the navigable rivers and lakes.

2. MCA 70-16-201

Provides for state ownership from the low water mark to the low water mark on navigable water bodies.

3. MCA 70-1-202

Provides for state ownership of all land below the water of navigable lakes or streams.

4. MCA 77-1-102

All lands lying and being in and forming a part of the abandoned bed of any navigable stream or lake belongs to the State of Montana, for the School Trust.

5. MCA 70-18-203

Islands and accumulations of land formed in the beds of navigable streams belong to the State of Montana.

The Department considers navigable waterways to be those for which it has historical documentation of commercial use. As new navigability data is discovered, the following list of navigable waterways may be revised as required.
